Agreement on Undergraduate Students Exchange between

Montreal University in Canada and

China University of Political Science & Law

With the aim to strengthen international academic exchanges, broaden students’ international horizon, enhance international academic reputation of both sides, the Montreal University and the China University of Political Science & Law agree to the undergraduate students exchange program under the terms described below.

General Principles

Both parties will be committed to the implementation of the Agreement, and will recognize the credits that each other’s students obtain during their exchange abroad.

Specific Terms

1. Quotas
Both parties will accept no more than eight exchange students from the other party. In principle, students will be exchanged on a one to one basis. The number may vary in different years, but it is understood that a balance in the number of exchange students shall be sought over the long term.

2. Requirements
This Agreement will be open to excellent sophomore and junior undergraduate students majoring in law from both sides, who shall possess necessary English language competence to fulfill their overseas study.
Students will be selected and recommended by their home institution, while the host institution will reserve the right to make the final decision on admission.

3. Length of exchange
In general, students participating in this program will study abroad for one semester.

4. Expenses
Students will pay tuition at their home university and the host institution will waive tuition for them.
Students shall be responsible for their own expenses including room and board, travel, textbooks, medical treatment, insurances, other personal expenses and so on.

5. Accommodation
The host university will assist the exchange students in finding suitable accommodation.

6. Academic transcript
The host university will provide an academic transcript for each exchange student after they successfully complete their study at the host institution.

General Terms

1. Both parties agree to apply to the China Scholarship Council for its financial support granted through its Undergraduate Students International Exchange Program. So that excellent students of the China University of Political Science and Law, who are from poor families, will have opportunities to study abroad.

2. Master and doctor students exchange between both parties is still subject to MOU between the Faculty of Law of the Montreal University and the China University of Political Science and Law on Students Exchange Program signed in 2010.

3. This Agreement is signed in Beijing on March 26th, 2013. It enters into force after being signed by the representatives of both Parties for a period of five years. It will automatically renew for another five years unless otherwise determined.

4. This agreement may be revised through the mutual agreement of both parties and may be terminated by either party upon giving six months advance written notice.

5. This Agreement is signed in English and Chinese in duplicate. In case of differing interpretation, both parties will solve it through mutual discussion.
