AGREEMENT ESTABLISHING LL.M. PROGRAM SCHOLARSHIP between
THE LAW FACULTY OF UNIVERSITÉ DE MONTRÉAL
and
SHANGHAI JIAO TONG UNIVERSITY KOGUAN LAW SCHOOL

To enhance the legal education of their respective students and collaborate more closely in teaching and research, the Law Faculty of Université de Montréal (hereinafter “Montréal”) and the Shanghai Jiao Tong University KoGuan Law School (hereinafter “KoGuan”) agree to conclude the following reciprocal master degree scholarship agreement:

1. During each year that this Agreement is in effect, each institution will recommend, from among those students who are interested, eligible and qualified, candidates to attend the other institution’s LL.M. program. Each host institution reserves the right to reject recommended LL.M. degree student candidates, especially if the candidate does not meet the admissions requirements in effect for the LL.M. program at the host institution.

2. Each institution agrees to provide full or partial LL.M. tuition waiver scholarship under the terms of this Agreement. Montréal will offer two KoGuan law students with TOEFL scores of no less than 580/92, and in accordance with the excellence of their academic record, and who otherwise meet the requirements for admission to its LL.M. program, a full/half-tuition waiver scholarship. KoGuan will offer two Montréal law students who meet the requirements for admission to its LL.M. Program in Chinese Law a full/half-tuition waiver scholarship. Both institutions shall try to reach a balance in terms of the number of students exchanged during the term of this agreement.

3. Montréal law students eligible to participate in the LL.M. program at KoGuan must have completed at least three years of undergraduate law study or two semesters of graduate law study and must be in good academic standing.

4. KoGuan law students eligible to participate in the LL.M. program at Montréal must have completed at least three years of undergraduate law study or two semesters of graduate law study and must be in good academic standing.

5. LL.M. degree students will be responsible for arranging the necessary visa and for covering the cost of accommodation, international travel, travel in the host country, books, equipment, consumables, health insurance, and other incidental expenses arising out of the LL.M. program.
6. LL.M. degree students must comply with prerequisites or other requirements governing admission to specific courses or seminars at the host institution. Assuming LL.M. degree students meet prerequisites or other requirements for specific courses, the host institution will make its best effort to ensure that LL.M. degree students have access to the courses and seminars that are of interest to them.

7. LL.M. degree students will be subject to the rules and regulations of the host institution. They will also have the rights and privileges enjoyed by other students at the host institution. Fulfillment of the LL.M. degree shall be subject to satisfaction of the graduation requirements of the host institution.

8. Each institution will make every reasonable effort to assist LL.M. degree students in finding suitable accommodations. The cost of such housing will be paid by the student.

9. Either institution may at any time review this Agreement and the actions taken under it and, by mutual agreement, make any necessary modifications to it.

10. This Agreement will enter into force for three academic years upon signature by representatives of both institutions. Either institution may terminate this Agreement at the end of any academic year by giving at least six months notice. Upon expiration, this Agreement will be subject to automatic annual renewals unless terminated in writing.

11. Any dispute arising from the implementation or interpretation of this Agreement will be resolved amicably by consultation between the parties.

12. The parties will sign duplicate originals of this Agreement and each party will retain one original.

Université de Montréal
Law Faculty

Professor Guy Lefebvre
Dean

Date: March 22, 2013

Shanghai Jiao Tong University
KoGuan Law School

Professor Ji Weidong
Dean

Date: March 22, 2013