Academic Exchange Agreement between

Sichuan University of People’s Republic of China

and

University of Montreal

Based on equality and mutual benefit, after friendly discussions, Sichuan University of People’s Republic of China and University of Montreal, Canada have reached the following academic exchange agreement in order to explore and promote academic exchanges between each other.

Article 1 Contents of Agreement

1. Exchanges of teachers and researchers in teaching and scientific research

2. Student exchanges including undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral students

3. Co-supervising PhD program and working to develop a joint PhD degree program

4. Scientific research cooperation in commonly interested fields and establishment of scientific research cooperation platforms

5. Exchange of journals and academic works

6. Other programs regarded appropriate for exchange by both sides

Article 2 Implementation of Agreement

In order to implement this agreement, the administrative offices for international cooperation and exchange of the two universities will be responsible for routine contacts and the two universities will work out the details for specific exchange programs and supervise the implementation of the agreement and exchange programs based on full communications with each other.

Article 3 Text of Agreement

This agreement is prepared in Chinese text and English text with two copies for each version. Each of the two universities keeps one copy of both texts which are all originals and have equal legal effect.

Article 4 Alteration of Agreement

If necessary, the two sides can make modifications and supplementations to the present agreement through mutual discussions. Issues not specified in this agreement shall be solved through friendly discussions between the two sides.

Article 5: Effectiveness of Agreement

This agreement will be valid for five years as of the date of signing by the representatives of both sides and can be extended or terminated by informing the other side in written notice six months prior to the date of expiration.

For the University of Montreal

Luc Vinet
Rector
Date: Dec 05, 2008

For Sichuan University

Shi Jian
Vice President(International)
Date: Dec 05, 2008